5-UI-114

Application for Intervenor Compensation filed by Citizens' Utility
Board for $32,000 to Participate in Docket 5-UI-114

1-IC-402

ORDER

At its open meeting of June 5, 2008, the Commission considered the application for intervenor compensation for the participation of the Citizens' Utility Board (CUB), along with Clean Wisconsin and RENEW Wisconsin, in the docket investigating innovative utility ratemaking approaches that promote conservation and efficiency programs by removing disincentives that may exist under current ratemaking policies. The Commission approves this request in the amount of $32,000. The $32,000 awarded includes $12,600 for the consulting services of Mr. George Edgar, $10,850 for the legal services of Cullen, Weston, Pines, and Bach, and $8,550 for the participation of CUB, Clean Wisconsin, and RENEW Wisconsin.

In approving this application, the Commission finds that CUB meets the intent of Wis. Admin. Code ch. PSC 3.

Notice of Appeal Rights

Notice is hereby given that a person aggrieved by the foregoing decision has the right to file a petition for judicial review as provided in Wis. Stat. § 227.53. The petition must be filed within 30 days after the date of mailing of this decision. That date is shown on the first page. If there is no date on the first page, the date of mailing is shown immediately above the signature line. The Public Service Commission of Wisconsin must be named as respondent in the petition for judicial review.

Notice is further given that, if the foregoing decision is an order following a proceeding which is a contested case as defined in Wis. Stat. § 227.01(3), a person aggrieved by the order has the further right to file one petition for rehearing as provided in Wis. Stat. § 227.49. The petition must be filed within 20 days of the date of mailing of this decision.

If this decision is an order after rehearing, a person aggrieved who wishes to appeal must seek judicial review rather than rehearing. A second petition for rehearing is not an option.

This general notice is for the purpose of ensuring compliance with Wis. Stat. § 227.48(2), and does not constitute a conclusion or admission that any particular party or person is necessarily aggrieved or that any particular decision or order is final or judicially reviewable.
